OBJECTS

To promote in the suburbs of Leicester the erection and co-operative ownership and administration of houses for working men and others, by methods, which, while avoiding the dangers that too frequently accompany the individual ownership of houses and speculative building devoid of public spirit harmonise the interests of Tenant and Investor by an equitable use of the profit arising from

OPENING OF COTTAGES.

The Committee of the Anchor Tenants Limited desire to call your attention to the Magazine page of the "Co-operative News" for March 6th, 1908.

"A Unique Development."

"A Garden Village, conceived, owned, and administered on true Co-operative lines."

We have every confidence that Societies with Surplus Capital will before making investments carefully consider the advisability of supporting a scheme, which, offering a safe remunerative investment, carries the Ideal of the Rochdale Pioneers a step further towards realization.

WE need further Capital.

YOU require an outlet for investment of Surplus Capital.

YOU communicate with us.

WE will forward necessary information or appoint a deputation to wait upon you.

Yours faithfully,

E. T. GROOME, President.

J. S. WILFORD, Secretary.
